

Christmas Day

©ElementarySafety.com

©ElementarySafety.com

©ElementarySafety.com

Christmas is celebrated in almost every country in the world by Christians. It commemorates the birth of the baby Jesus, the son of God to earthly parents Mary and Joseph in Bethlehem. His birth was in a stable, surrounded by farm animals, an angel, shepherds and three wise men who are said to have followed a star to him. Some customs include giving gifts, decorating Christmas trees, putting up lights and spending time with family. It is one of the most important Christian holidays.