Road & Street Safety

If you are crossing a street that does not have a light, stick out your arm to let drivers know that you want to cross and wait for them to stop.